Fall Parish Religious Education begins this month

Trip to Hosak's start's school year's events Oct. 9

Our parish's fall education programs are beginning with Church School classes on Sunday, October 9, with classes at 9:30 am and a brief blessing of the Church School after Liturgy that day. Right after church, we will have a quick informal lunch in the Lyceum for children and their families, and then go to Hosak's Farms for an afternoon of fall fun, including a pumpkin patch, maze, and hayride. Those going are encouraged to bring a change out of church clothes for themselves and their children.

Parents are asked to remember to bring their children regularly and on time. This will tell our children that the Church, their faith, and their learning are important. It will also allow the teachers to accomplish more, with less backtracking and repeating.

Adult Classes every other Wednesday

The fall session of our adult learning classes will begin on Wednesday, October 11 and will continue every other Wednesday through the middle of December, from 7 to 8:30 pm in the Church Library. We will explore our Holy Orthodox Faith and find out just how wonderfully deep and rich it truly is. Everyone is welcome to participate however often they can. Please join us.

Tammies to begin practices October 17

Our Holy Resurrection Tamburitians will begin their new season on Monday, October 17 with practice. The Tammies continue to teach our children the riches of their Serbian heritage in song, instrumental music instruction, and dance. All parish children are invited to participate. Denise Stewart is musical director. An organizational meeting for parents will also be held then.

New Vestments need a donor

The Church has purchased a new set of red priest's vestments for only $375, imported from Serbia. These vestments should provide many years of service here in our church. If anyone would like to donate these vestments for the health of themselves or loved ones, or in memory of loved ones, please notify the Church Office or Father Rade.

Thanks and Many Years...

Thanks to the church landscaping committee, and especially to Richard and Jodi Jenikovsky for the flowers around the bell tower and other landscaping improvements around the church.

Thanks also to Luka and Kathy Povich for supplying the fresh basil and flowers for decoration the Precious Cross at the Feast of the Elevation.

The Protection of the Most Holy Theotokos

October 1/14

Troparion - Tone 4

Today the faithful celebrate the feast with joy, illumined by your coming, O Mother of God. Beholding your pure image we fervently cry to you: Encompass us beneath the precious veil of your protection, and deliver us from every form of evil by entreating Christ, your Son and our God that He may save our souls.

Kontakion - Tone 3

Today the Virgin stands in the midst of the Church and with choirs of Saints she invisibly prays to God for us. Angels and Bishops magnify her, Apostles and prophets rejoice together, Since for our sake she prays to the Eternal God!

This miraculous appearance of the Mother of God occurred in the mid-tenth century in Constantinople, in the Blachernae church where her robe, veil, and part of her belt were preserved after being transferred from Palestine in the fifth century.

On Sunday, October 1, during the All Night Vigil, when the church was overflowing with those at prayer, the Fool-for-Christ St. Andrew (October 2), at the fourth hour, lifted up his eyes towards the heavens and beheld our most Holy Lady Theotokos coming through the air, resplendent with heavenly light and surrounded by an assembly of the Saints. St. John the Baptist and the holy Apostle John the Theologian accompanied the Queen of Heaven. On bended knees the Most Holy Virgin tearfully prayed for Christians for a long time. Then, coming near the Bishop's Throne, she continued her prayer.

After completing her prayer she took her veil and spread it over the people praying in church, protecting them from enemies both visible and invisible. The Most Holy Lady Theotokos was resplendent with heavenly glory, and the protecting veil in her hands gleamed "more than the rays of the sun." St. Andrew gazed trembling at the miraculous vision and he asked his disciple, the blessed Epiphanius standing beside him, "Do you see, brother, the Holy Theotokos, praying for all the world?" Epiphanius answered, "I do see, holy Father, and I am in awe."

The Ever-Blessed Mother of God implored the Lord Jesus Christ to accept the prayers of all the people calling on His Most Holy Name, and to respond speedily to her intercession, "O Heavenly King, accept all those who pray to You and call on my name for help. Do not let them not go away from my icon unheard."

Thanks to the church landscaping committee, and especially to Richard and Jodi Jenikovsky for the flowers around the bell tower and other landscaping improvements around the church.

Thanks also to Luka and Kathy Povich for supplying the fresh basil and flowers for decoration the Precious Cross at the Feast of the Elevation.

Sts. Andrew and Epiphanius were worthy to see the Mother of God at prayer, and "for a long time observed the Protecting Veil spread over the people and shining with flashes of glory. As long as the Most Holy Theotokos was there, the Protecting Veil was also visible, but with her departure it also became invisible. After taking it with her, she left behind the grace of her visitation."

At the Blachernae church, the memory of the miraculous appearance of the Mother of God was remembered. In the fourteenth century, the Russian pilgrim and clerk Alexander, saw in the church an icon of the Most Holy Theotokos praying for the world, depicting St. Andrew in contemplation of her.

The Primary Chronicle of St. Nestor reflects that the protective intercession of the Mother of God was needed because an attack of a large pagan Russian fleet under the leadership of Askole and Dir. The feast celebrates the divine destruction of the fleet which threatened Constantinople itself, sometime in the years 864-867 or according to the Russian historian Vasiliev, on June 18, 860. Ironically, this Feast is considered important by the Slavic Churches but not by the Greeks.

On the Feast of the Protection of the Most Holy Theotokos we implore the defense and assistance of the Queen of Heaven, "Remember us in your prayers, O Lady Virgin Mother of God, that we not perish by the increase of our sins. Protect us from every evil and from grievous woes, for in you do we hope, and venerating the Feast of your Protection, we magnify you."

St. Romanos the Melodist

Saint Romanus the Melodist was born in the fifth century in the Syrian city of Emesa of Jewish parents. After moving to Constantinople, he became a church sacristan in the temple of Hagia Sophia. The monk spent his nights alone at prayer in a field or in the Blachernae church beyond the city.

St. Romanus was not a talented reader or singer. Once, on the eve of the Nativity of Christ, he read the kathisma verses. He read so poorly that another reader had to take his place. The clergy ridiculed Romanus, which devastated him.

On the day of the Nativity, the Mother of God appeared to the grief-stricken youth in a vision while he was praying before her Kyriotissa icon. She gave him a scroll and commanded him to eat it. Thus was he given the gift of understanding, composition, and hymnography.

That evening at the all-night Vigil St. Romanus sang, in a wondrous voice, his first Kontakion: "Today the Virgin gives birth to the Transcendent One..." All the hymns of St. Romanus became known as kontakia, in reference to the Virgin's scroll. St. Romanus was also the first to write in the form of the Oikos, which he incorporated into the all-night Vigil at his places of residence (In Greek, "oikos").

For his zealous service St. Romanus was ordained as a deacon and became a teacher of song. Until his death, which occurred about the year 556, the hierodeacon Romanus the Melodist composed nearly a thousand hymns, many of which are still used by Christians to glorify the Lord. About eighty survive.

From the President's Desk:

This is the back to school time of year and the church is looking forward to welcoming its church school children for another term of learning. The congregation welcomes all children old and new and wishes them the best in the coming year. It is sometimes difficult to attend all school sessions, but it should be pointed out that not much good is achieved without effort.

The church celebrated its 99th anniversary slava on September 25 with the traditional church service and banquet. Kumovi for the event were Milan and Lee Mandich of Steubenville. Our thanks and congratulations go out to Mike and Lee for honoring us with their service.

The plans for the 100th anniversary were moved forward this week with a kickoff planning session. Several persons have stepped forward to chair important sub committees and will be starting work for the coming year. The next meeting for planning the event will be on October 19th and will be held every two weeks until the event is held or the plans have been completed. Pictures are beginning to come in and will be taken for the next several months for the completion of the DVD, and will be accepted even after that for addition to the museum. We welcome all pictures, movies or video tapes which depict events from the life of our church community, or the achievements of our parishioners.

All those who receive the Herald will begin to receive update mailings that will focus on the anniversary weekend of September 29,30, and October 1 of 2006. If you know of any other persons such as relatives, friends or neighbors throughout the country who would like to receive updates concerning the celebration, please contact the church office and provide the names and addresses.

So far the planning of the three day event has the following lineup:

Friday, September 29: Welcome Social and opening of the anniversary museum

Saturday September 30: Vespers, Cultural Program and Dance

Sunday October 1: Church services followed by anniversary banquet and social

We will develop and announce the details in the coming months. Stay tuned.

The Petar Krstich will be travelling on October 1 to Toronto to be the honored guest choir for the St. Sava choir of Toronto/Mississagua. We wish them sretan put. Also on the week of October 22 the choir will be hosting the Choir from Kitchener, Ontario as our honored guests.

See you in church,

Mark

October 2005

Thank you to EVERYONE for your Prayers, Cards, Well wishes, Phone Calls and Visits. I am now home and recovery is slow but progressing. My voice is scratchy and my mouth and throat dries out quickly and it is difficult to have a long conversation, so the computer is my answer to talking for the time being. You can email me at gdvukelich@verizon.net if you like. I hope to return to Divine Liturgy as soon as the doctor gives me the OK.

Summer is officially over

Now is the time to think about the Flu and cold season.

What are soon of the differences between the flu and a cold?

Everyone either is or knows of someone on Medicare.

The New drug plan offered by Medicare is NO hoax. But you must register to receive it.

The coverage begins in January 2006. Some people can qualify for extra financial help to pay for the monthly premiums, annual deductibles and prescription co-payments under this new program.

If you or your loved one does not get an application from Social Security for help call 1-800-772-1213 for information or to apply over the phone. Those who need TTY can call 1-800-325-0778. Those who have a computer can go to www.socialsecurity.gov on line. If you would like information on the Medicare prescription-drug plans call 1-800-MEDICARE (633-4227).

All of these phone numbers all Toll-Free, so you can call without being charged for the call.

Focus on Health

The final surveys will arrive soon and need to be back to WVU BEFORE Thanksgiving. So please look for the notice and complete your survey when they arrive. Thanks.

I will be checking with the church office each week, if you have an issue to discuss just let them know so I can call you. You can call me directly at 304-723-6019 or email me at gdvukelich@verizon.net.

Thank you all for this opportunity to serve our God in this way by helping you.

Until next time --- See you Sunday --- Diane<-<

PK Choir News

The choir wants to remind everyone of our upcoming concert which will be held on October 22nd and 23rd. Our honored guest choir will be from Kitchner, Ontario, and a great weekend is being planned. John Drzayich who is chair for this task is taking ads. See any choir member for tickets for the dance and dinner, which will be on sale soon. There will be plenty of entertainment for all to enjoy. Please join us that weekend of dance and song.

The choir is pleased to see some former choir members returning to join us on Tuesday evenings. It is great to see Sandy Connell and Babe Stanar-welcome back !!! It would be really nice to see some other former choir members also. We miss seeing all of them. Remember, everyone is invited to attend the rehearsals and join the choir. Thanks to all who helped in this endeavor from mailing fliers out and/or assisting in preparing the food and snacks. All help is appreciated for any event that takes place.

We will be brushing up on our Christmas responses soon also and possibly learning some new music. Our director makes every effort to keep us learning new pieces of music to keep the heritage and tradition alive. Thanks Slo!!

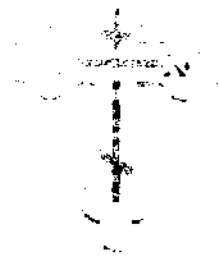

Don't forget the strudel sale also in November for the Thanksgiving holiday. Dates to be announced later.

We will be traveling to Ontario also, more to report on this trip in the next issue of the Herald.

Until next time...

Peter Krstich Choir

September 2005

Dear Friends,

The Peter Krstich Choir of the holy Resurrection Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church of Steubenville Ohio will be observing its 62nd Anniversary Concert weekend on October the 22nd & 23rd 2005. A weekend of beautiful singing, music, fun, dancing, and fellowship is planned for our honored guest choir, the SSS St Roman Belgrade Church Choir of Kitchener, Ontario.

Also participating will be the St Nicholas Orthodox Church choir of Harrisville PA, and our Holy Mass in our Terminal will be pronounced.

Please keep these dates open and plan on joining us to celebrate this beautiful time of year. The dinner and concert will be held on Saturday October 27, at the Serbian American Cultural Center, Burton, WVA. Everyone is invited to stay for the dance following the concert. We are expecting a great turn out for this annual festivity.

The PK Choir will be publishing another commemorative program book with names of friends and businesses that support our church choir. Again this past and always we appreciate your generosity in supporting our program book.

Major Renovations to the Church Building Underway

Stained Glass Windows, Front Steps and Sidewalks included in repairs

At the mid-year congregational meeting, two major church renovation projects were approved by the congregation. The first is a renovation of the church's stained glass windows. This work will include cleaning the glass, repairing any broken glass, reinforcing and releading as needed, renovating the frames, and installing new vented exterior protective coverings. This work will protect the windows for many years to come. It is necessary in order to protect and preserve the windows for many years to come. One section of the protective covering has already been blown out by the wind, and a number of the windows are bowed. The total price of the project is $30,000.

The second major work will be repairing the front steps of the church and replacing broken concrete walkways as needed. This will repair leaking into the front of the Lyccum and make the steps structurally sound. This work is projected to cost from $13,000 to $18,000, depending on exactly how extensive hidden damage may be.

The work on both these projects is scheduled to begin soon, and be completed before winter.

These are large expenditures, but they are necessary as our church building nears its 60th year of service. This 100th anniversary year is an opportune time to undertake this much needed work.

In order to accomplish this necessary work, your Church asks all of you, its members and friends, to help with special monetary donations earmarked for these projects.

For the windows, please see the chart below for prices for the renovation of each window. Donations for windows may be made in memory of loved ones, or for the health of family and friends. A special plaque will be affixed below each window to commemorate this renovation work during the 100th Anniversary year of the Church, with the name of the donors or of those being honored. Extended families or groups may wish to sponsor the larger windows. Also, many of these windows already have plaques with the names of the original donors. Families of these original donors may wish to undertake the work on those windows in their memory.

Call the Church Office or talk to any Board member for more information. To sponsor a window, or to help with the cost of the steps and walks, please complete the form below and return it with your donation. Sponsorships for windows will be on a first come basis.

All donors to each of these projects will be acknowledged in the Church Herald and in the 100th Anniversary Commemorative Book to be published next year.

Please be generous in your donations, as we seek to preserve our beautiful 'Visoki Decani' Church for the next century of its existence! God bless your generosity!
